KC Golf Classic announces dates for 2021 event

Professional golf returns to Kansas City May 17-23, 2021

KANSAS CITY, Missouri – Tournament officials announced today the tournament date for the Korn Ferry Tour's 2021 KC Golf Classic, set to be contested the week of May 17-23 at Blue Hills Country Club in Kansas City.

"We are excited to announce our tournament date for next year and return to professional golf in Kansas City," said KC Golf Classic Executive Director Drew Van Meeteren. "We are nicely positioned after Mother's Day and before Memorial Day, which will deliver an elevated tournament experience for the players, our fans and partners."

The KC Golf Classic, a PGA TOUR-sanctioned event on the Korn Ferry Tour, is conducted annually at Blue Hills Country Club in Kansas City, Missouri. This four-day, 72-hole competition features 156 players from around the world vying for a total purse of $675,000. As the path to the PGA TOUR, the Korn Ferry Tour features some of the most talented professional golfers who are ready to compete and win on golf's biggest stage.

It's More Than Golf. This is the tournament's commitment to deliver an experience to fans, partners, volunteers and Tour players and an impact to the Kansas City community beyond just golf. The KC Golf Classic is a community-centric philanthropic event utilizing professional golf to positively impact the KC Heartland and the charities supported. As an investor member of the Kansas City Area Development Council, we are committed to making a difference in the KC Heartland community. Be a part of the KC Golf Classic where you will experience best-in-class fun and have your expectations exceeded, all while making a difference in the KC Heartland community we all love!
